PRESS RELEASE – April 28, 2015

The Honorable LeRoy F. Millette, Jr., Justice of the Supreme Court of Virginia, Announces Retirement

LeRoy F. Millette, Jr., Justice of the Supreme Court of Virginia, has announced to the Court his intention to retire on July 31, 2015. He plans to continue to serve as a Senior Justice on the Supreme Court. The Justice turns sixty-six this year and plans to spend more time with his family. Justice Millette was appointed to the Supreme Court by Governor Timothy Kaine in 2008, and was confirmed by the Virginia General Assembly to a twelve-year term.

Justice Millette has served the Commonwealth for twenty-five years as a judge on all four levels of the judiciary. He received his undergraduate degree from the College of William and Mary and his Juris Doctor from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law of the College of William and Mary. During his career, he served as a District Court Judge and a Circuit Court Judge for Prince William County. Justice Millette then served on the Court of Appeals of Virginia before being appointed to the Supreme Court of Virginia.
