Policy Requiring the Timely Submission of Payment Requests

Applicability:

This Policy applies to all requests for payment submitted to the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia, including, but not limited to, requests for payment submitted by special justices, guardians ad litem, interpreters, mediators, court-appointed counsel, court-appointed experts, substitute judges, retired judges and others.

Requirements:

All requests for payment of fees or for travel or other expenses must be submitted no later than thirty days after the service or the travel is completed. For court-appointed counsel, each time limit is measured from the completion of all proceedings in the court for which the request is being submitted. See Va. Code § 19.2-163.

If a request for payment is submitted more than thirty days after the service or the travel is completed, the Office of the Executive Secretary may require additional documentation.

All requests for payment, whether initially submitted to the court or, as appropriate, to the Office of the Executive Secretary, and any additional documentation required, must be received by the Office of the Executive Secretary within twelve months of the date on which the service or the travel is completed. The person submitting the payment request is responsible for ensuring that the request is received by the Office of the Executive Secretary within the twelve-month period. If necessary, the person submitting the payment request should contact the Office of the Executive Secretary in writing before the end of the twelve-month period. Any such inquiry may be sent to: Office of the Executive Secretary, Supreme Court of Virginia, Attn. Fiscal Department, 100 N. 9th Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219. Payment after twelve months will only be made under limited circumstances upon a detailed written explanation provided to the Office of the Executive Secretary.

FOR INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS. The Commonwealth of Virginia has a Substitute Form W-9 \(COVA W-9\) that is required in lieu of the IRS Form W-9 for each individual who is a US citizen or US resident alien and from each corporation, company, partnership, or association created or organized in the US or under US laws. The COVA W-9 requires additional information needed to ensure the vendor is properly established in the state accounting system.

Any individual who is not employed by the State, but who is conducting State business must submit a Substitute Form W-9 and is subject to the Judicial System Travel and Meals Policy regarding lodging rates, meals, and other expenses.

Waiver Funds:

Virginia Code § 19.2-163 provides that if at any time the funds allocated for the waivers are exhausted, the Executive Secretary is to certify that fact to the courts, and no additional waivers may be approved. Waiver funds are appropriated annually and typically are exhausted before the end of the year. Therefore, it is important that applications for fee cap waivers be submitted in the same year the service is performed and as early as possible since payment is subject to the availability of funds appropriated for that year.

Hourly Rate for Court-Appointed Counsel

Unless otherwise specified, the Supreme Court of Virginia's established rate of up to $90 per hour (in and out of court) for court-appointed counsel shall apply. Time shall be recorded in increments not greater than .10 hour (6 minutes). The hourly rate for court-appointed counsel, including guardians ad litem, is considered to include staff time and office overhead. Therefore, court-appointed counsel, including guardians ad litem, should not bill for staff time or office overhead, unless it is expressly authorized by law.

Electronic Voucher Payment System ("EVPS")

Except as noted, the information in the Chart of Allowances pertains both to payment requests submitted on a paper DC-40, as well as payment requests by those who are able to submit an electronic DC-40 through the EVPS.

This is a required field in order to receive payment. (2) If felony charge for adult in juvenile court or general district court is disposed of in the district court, then circuit court felony rates apply. Felony class or possible punishment, if the felony is unclassified, must be indicated. (3) For revocation of probation, indicate § 19.2-306 on the paper DC-40 as the original code section charged, except as noted below. Note either felony or misdemeanor and the highest class of the original charges. Payment is allowed on the basis of only one charge. For example, if a defendant who is on probation for five charges were subject to a probation revocation proceeding, the court-appointed attorney would be reimbursed for only one charge – the probation revocation. Note: If counsel is requesting the supplemental statutory waiver for a probation violation (except class 1 felony), and the original charge was a felony violation of §§ 18.2-35, 18.2-36, 18.2-36.1, 18.2-41, 18.2-51, 18.2-67.3, 18.2-79, 18.2-80, 18.2-370, 18.2-370.1 or 18.2-371.1, the specific statute for the original charge must be inserted in “Original Code § Charged” instead of § 19.2-306. This is to ensure that the correct maximum supplemental statutory waiver amount is identified. See pages 18-20 for more information about waiver amounts. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (4) Guardian ad litem or juvenile appeal must be indicated. The Supreme Court of Virginia’s established rate of up to $78.75/hour in court and $57.50/hour out of court for guardians ad litem applies. Time shall be recorded in increments not greater than .10 hour (6 minutes). Except for matters involving a petition to terminate residual parental rights under § 16.1-283, the fee for counsel appointed pursuant to § 16.1-266 to represent a parent or guardian in a civil matter is up to $330 in J&DR court and up to $330 in circuit court. The hourly rate for court-appointed counsel, including guardians ad litem, is considered to include staff time and office overhead. Therefore, court-appointed counsel, including guardians ad litem, should not bill for staff time or office overhead, unless it is expressly authorized by law.

*Defense of an unclassified felony punishable by 20 years or less is compensated as a Class 3 or 4 Felony, or by more than 20 years as a Class 2 Felony.
Fee for additional waiver is in the discretion of the court.

General Information and Instructions

Fee waivers may only be approved by the court in which the case is concluded.

The General Assembly has authorized the above schedule for compensation for an attorney appointed by the court in a case other than a Class 1 Felony. If co-counsel (more than one attorney) is appointed to represent a defendant at the same time in a case other than a Class 1 Felony or mandatory life offense, then co-counsel shall share the statutory fee, supplemental statutory waiver amount, and fee for additional waiver permitted for one attorney. In the circuit court, court-appointed counsel who is granted leave of court to withdraw and who terminates the representation prior to conclusion of the case, is eligible for the statutory fee and the supplemental statutory waiver amount but is ineligible for a fee for additional waiver.

Calculation of time expended for court-appointed representation should reflect actual time spent out of court preparing for cases and actual time spent representing clients in court. When an attorney is in court representing multiple defendants on the same day or representing one defendant for multiple charges on the same day, calculation of the total actual time spent in court should be apportioned among defendants and/or among charges accordingly. For example, if court-appointed counsel is in court on one day for five hours representing five clients, the total time that is allowable for being in court on that day is five hours. In that instance, it might be appropriate to record one hour of in-court time for each defendant on that date, or some other division of time more accurately reflecting the time spent for each defendant. Similarly, if court-appointed counsel spends five hours in court representing one defendant for three separate charges, the total time that is allowable is five hours for all three charges. In the examples above, court-appointed counsel should not record five hours of in-court time for each of the five defendants or for each individual charge, which would result in improper duplicate payments that do not reflect the total actual time spent in court on that day. Total actual time spent out of court should be apportioned in the same manner.

Upon submission by counsel of a detailed accounting of time expended for court-appointed representation,¹ the court in its discretion and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia may waive the limitation of the statutory fee and authorize additional compensation up to the supplemental statutory waiver amount when the effort expended by counsel, the time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, the novelty and difficulty of the issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver.

Counsel may also request additional compensation exceeding these amounts by submitting a written request with a detailed accounting of the time spent² and justification for the additional amount. The presiding judge shall determine, subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia, whether this request for additional compensation above the supplemental statutory waiver amount is justified, in whole or part, by considering the effort expended and time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, and, if so, shall forward the request as approved to the chief judge of the circuit court or district court for approval.

¹Time shall be recorded in increments not greater than .10 hour (6 minutes). The hourly rate for court-appointed counsel, including guardians ad litem, is considered to include staff time and office overhead. Therefore, court-appointed counsel, including guardians ad litem, should not bill for staff time or office overhead, unless it is expressly authorized by law.

If both the presiding judge and the chief judge determine that an additional amount is justified based upon the novelty, difficulty, effort expended and time required for the particular representation and they approve a fee for such an additional waiver amount greater than:

- $2,000 in any district court,
- $3,000 in any circuit court misdemeanor or circuit delinquency charge,
- $5,000 in any circuit court felony, class III to VI charge, or
- $15,000 in any circuit court felony class II charge, then such request for an additional waiver amount in excess of the foregoing amounts shall be submitted by the Chief Judge to the Office of the Executive Secretary, with the DC-40A and all supporting documentation, and upon review by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, may be paid in full, or in lieu of full payment, be approved for a partial payment. Partial payments shall be made only in the event the Chief Justice finds such partial payment is necessary to promote the equitable distribution of waiver funds through the end of the fiscal year.

These procedures are in addition to guidelines posted at https://www.vacourts.gov/forms/district/statutory_criteria_fee_cap_waiver_guidelines.pdf

The payment approval process,³ including review and approval of invoices by the Office of the Executive Secretary, is a function of the Supreme Court of Virginia's oversight of the judiciary's budget and management of funds, including the Criminal Fund. Fee waivers are paid from a finite appropriation allocated to the fiscal year. The foregoing process is necessary to facilitate the fair distribution of funds as provided for in the Code of Virginia and the Budget.⁴

There is no appeal process available if an application for waiver of fee caps is denied. Additionally, if at any time the funds appropriated to pay for waivers become insufficient, the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall so certify to the courts and no further waivers shall be approved or paid.
