Fiscal Snapshot FY2020

The General Assembly appropriated $ 545.4 million for the judicial system for fiscal year 2019-2020. This constituted an increase of 24.6% from the $437.6 million that was budgeted in fiscal year 2018-2019. These funds comprised less than one percent of the total state biennium budget.

Total judicial system expenditures in fiscal year 2020 totaled $440.2 million. Of the total judicial system expenditures, 71.6% or $315.4 million was for operational costs: personal services (salaries, wage and fringe benefits) totaled $272.0 million (or 86.2% of operational costs) and automation needs, services, supplies, and equipment totaled $43.4 (or 13.8% of operational costs). Grant funds, Criminal Fund costs, and costs related to the involuntary mental commitment (IMC) process constituted the remainder ($124.8 million) of total court system expenditures in fiscal year 2020.

Grant Activity

Grant activity in FY 2020 totaled $4.7 million. The largest single expenditure of funds on grant activities ($3,008,243) occurred with the U.S. Department of Services for the Drug Court Programs in Virginia. Details of all grant activity are listed in Table.

Utilization of Substitute and Retired Recalled Judges in the District Courts

In order to meet demands placed upon the courts when a vacancy exists on the bench, when a sitting judge is asked to fulfill certain administrative duties, or when a sitting judge must disqualify or recuse himself or herself in conflict cases, the district courts must call upon substitute judges and recall retired judges to assist in the processing of cases. During 2020, the total cost of the utilization of substitute and retired recalled judges in the district courts totaled about $1.3 million for a total of 5,657.5 days (22.6 full-time equivalency positions) equating to an average of 20.6 days per district court judge. Appendix.

Utilization of Retired Recalled Judges in the Circuit Courts

The circuit courts also face the need to recall retired judges from time to time to assist with the caseloads of the courts and provide adequate resources when temporary judicial vacancies exist. In order to meet these demands placed upon the courts, the circuit courts during 2020 utilized retired judges for 2,039 days at a total cost of $509,500. This represented 8.16 full-time equivalent positions. Appendix.

Virginia's Courts Jurisdiction and Structure

The Supreme Court of Virginia, which sits in Richmond and is composed of seven Justices, concluded its two hundred and forty-second year of operation in 2020. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is elected by a majority of the Court's Justices and serves a four-year term. The Court meets for five-day sessions beginning in September of each year and every seventh week until completion of the June docket. There are no formal sessions of court during July and August.

The Court's original jurisdiction may be invoked by way of petition for habeas corpus, mandamus, or prohibition. Appellate jurisdiction is invoked by appeal or writ of error attacking the judgment of a trial court. The Court hears appeals from the circuit courts involving civil cases (excluding domestic relations cases), criminal cases in which a sentence of death has been imposed, habeas appeals, and appeals from the State Corporation Commission.

Additionally, the Supreme Court is empowered to deal with matters concerning judicial censure, retirement, and removal. Subject to some statutory limitations, cases decided by the Court of Appeals may be appealed to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court may, on its own motion or that of the Court of Appeals, certify a case originally appealed to the Court of Appeals for review by the Supreme Court before it has been determined by the Court of Appeals.

During the recess periods between sessions of the Court, the Justices conduct extensive legal research upon cases awaiting decision, draft and review opinions, study cases in which petitions for appeal have been filed, conduct hearings on petitions for appeal, and attend to administrative duties.

In addition to its appellate functions of examining results reached in lower courts and of redefining and developing the body of state law, the Supreme Court is also authorized to adopt rules of practice and procedure and to oversee changes in the organization of lower courts. The Supreme Court is responsible for the general supervision of the entire Virginia Judicial System.

The Court of Appeals of Virginia completed its thirty-fifth year of operation in 2020. Established in 1985, the Court of Appeals is composed of 11 judges who sit in panels of three in various regions of the state. The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals is elected by a majority of the Court's judges and serves a four-year term.

The Court of Appeals sits in various regional locations in order to provide convenient access to Virginia's citizens. These locations are normally in Alexandria, Norfolk, Richmond, and Salem. The clerk of the Court of Appeals is headquartered in Richmond and receives, processes, and maintains permanent records of appeals and other official documents filed with the Court.

The Court of Appeals hears appeals from circuit courts in all criminal matters except death penalty cases and in all domestic relations matters. In addition, appeals from decisions of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission and from most administrative agencies are taken to the Court. The Court also has original jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus, prohibition, and habeas corpus in any case over which the Court would have appellate jurisdiction. The Court has authority to hear appeals as a matter of right from:

- any final judgment, order, or decree of a circuit court involving affirmance or annulment of a marriage, divorce, custody, spousal or child support, or control or disposition of a child, as well as other domestic relations cases;
- any final decision of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission (a state agency responsible for handling workers' compensation claims);
- any final decision of a circuit court on appeal from a decision of an administrative agency (example: the Department of Health); and
- any interlocutory order granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction or adjudicating the principles of a cause in any of the cases listed above.

(As of December 31, 2020)

Virginia's Courts Jurisdiction and Structure

The Circuit Courts are Virginia's trial courts of general jurisdiction and have the authority to try a full range of civil and criminal cases. The circuit court system consists of 31 judicial circuits encompassing 120 separate circuit courts in the various counties and cities of the state. As of December 31, 2020, 168 judges and 121 locally elected clerks serve in the circuit courts. The judges of the Circuit Courts are elected and receive interim appointments in the same manner as the Court of Appeals judges. The Chief Judge of the circuit is elected for a two-year term by a vote of the judges serving in the circuit. See Table 23. In 2020, there were two courts, Alexandria (18th) and Fairfax (19th), that did not use the Courts Automated Information System - Case Management System (CAIS-CMS). These courts transmitted their own manually- or electronically-tabulated data. Statistical information has been italicized for these courts in the tables in this section.

In Virginia, the district court system, operational since 1973, is comprised of two distinct courts. A variety of criminal, traffic, and civil cases are heard by the general district courts. In criminal matters, the general district courts hear misdemeanor cases and hold preliminary hearings for felony cases. In civil cases, the general district court has exclusive jurisdiction in suits involving amounts of $4,500 or less and concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit courts in suits involving amounts up to $25,000.

In many instances, a citizen's first contact with Virginia's Judicial System comes through the office of the Magistrate. A principal function of the magistrate is to provide an independent, unbiased review of complaints of criminal conduct brought to the office by law enforcement or the general public. Magistrate duties include issuing various types of processes such as arrest warrants, summonses, bonds, search warrants, subpoenas, and certain civil warrants. Magistrates also conduct bail hearings in instances in which an individual is arrested on a warrant charging him or her with a criminal offense. Magistrates provide services on an around-the-clock basis, conducting hearings in person or through the use of video-conferencing systems.

The magistrate system for the Commonwealth is divided into eight regions, and each magistrate is authorized to exercise his or her powers throughout the magisterial region for which he or she is appointed. Each region is comprised of between three and five judicial districts. There are magistrate offices located throughout Virginia, including at least one in each of Virginia's 32 judicial districts.

Information About Virginia's Judges

The Justices of the Supreme Court of Virginia are elected by a majority vote of each House of the General Assembly for a term of twelve years. Interim appointments are made by the Governor subject to election by the General Assembly at the next regular session. By law, the Chief Justice is selected by a vote of the seven members of the Court.

The Court of Appeals Judges are elected by a majority vote of each House of the General Assembly. They serve for eight-year terms. Interim appointments are made by the Governor subject to election by the General Assembly at the next regular session. The Chief Judge is elected by a vote of the eleven judges for a term of four years.

The Judges of the Circuit Courts are elected and receive interim appointments in the same manner as the Court of Appeals Judges. The Chief Judge of the circuit is elected for a two-year term by a vote of the judges serving in the circuit.

The Judges of Virginia's District Courts are elected by a majority vote of each House of the General Assembly for terms of six years. Vacancies in district court judgeships occurring when the General Assembly is not in session are filled by the circuit court judges of the corresponding circuit. The judges so appointed must be elected by the next session of the General Assembly. Each district has a Chief General District Court Judge and a Chief Juvenile & Domestic Relations District Court Judge, both elected by peer vote for a two-year term. The Chief Judge is the administrative head of the respective courts in the district and is responsible for the management of the courts.

Magistrates provide an independent, unbiased review of criminal complaints brought to the office by police officers or the general public. Their duties include issuing various types of processes such as arrest warrants, summonses, emergency protective orders, search warrants, subpoenas, mental health orders, and emergency medical orders. Magistrates conduct bond hearings to determine bail in instances in which an individual is arrested and accept prepayments for traffic infractions and minor misdemeanors. Magistrates also serve as hearing officers for tax setoff hearings.

Grant Activity

Grant activity in FY 2020 totaled $4.7 million. The largest single expenditure of funds on grant activities ($3,008,243) occurred with the U.S. Department of Services for the Drug Court Programs in Virginia. Details of all grant activity are listed in Table.

Utilization of Substitute and Retired Recalled Judges in the District Courts

In order to meet demands placed upon the courts when a vacancy exists on the bench, when a sitting judge is asked to fulfill certain administrative duties, or when a sitting judge must disqualify or recuse himself or herself in conflict cases, the district courts must call upon substitute judges and recall retired judges to assist in the processing of cases. During 2020, the total cost of the utilization of substitute and retired recalled judges in the district courts totaled about $1.3 million for a total of 5,657.5 days (22.6 full-time equivalency positions) equating to an average of 20.6 days per district court judge. Appendix.

Utilization of Retired Recalled Judges in the Circuit Courts

The circuit courts also face the need to recall retired judges from time to time to assist with the caseloads of the courts and provide adequate resources when temporary judicial vacancies exist. In order to meet these demands placed upon the courts, the circuit courts during 2020 utilized retired judges for 2,039 days at a total cost of $509,500. This represented 8.16 full-time equivalent positions. Appendix.

Virginia's Courts Jurisdiction and Structure

The Supreme Court of Virginia, which sits in Richmond and is composed of seven Justices, concluded its two hundred and forty-second year of operation in 2020. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is elected by a majority of the Court's Justices and serves a four-year term. The Court meets for five-day sessions beginning in September of each year and every seventh week until completion of the June docket. There are no formal sessions of court during July and August.

The Court's original jurisdiction may be invoked by way of petition for habeas corpus, mandamus, or prohibition. Appellate jurisdiction is invoked by appeal or writ of error attacking the judgment of a trial court. The Court hears appeals from the circuit courts involving civil cases (excluding domestic relations cases), criminal cases in which a sentence of death has been imposed, habeas appeals, and appeals from the State Corporation Commission.

Additionally, the Supreme Court is empowered to deal with matters concerning judicial censure, retirement, and removal. Subject to some statutory limitations, cases decided by the Court of Appeals may be appealed to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court may, on its own motion or that of the Court of Appeals, certify a case originally appealed to the Court of Appeals for review by the Supreme Court before it has been determined by the Court of Appeals.

During the recess periods between sessions of the Court, the Justices conduct extensive legal research upon cases awaiting decision, draft and review opinions, study cases in which petitions for appeal have been filed, conduct hearings on petitions for appeal, and attend to administrative duties.

In addition to its appellate functions of examining results reached in lower courts and of redefining and developing the body of state law, the Supreme Court is also authorized to adopt rules of practice and procedure and to oversee changes in the organization of lower courts. The Supreme Court is responsible for the general supervision of the entire Virginia Judicial System.

The Court of Appeals of Virginia completed its thirty-fifth year of operation in 2020. Established in 1985, the Court of Appeals is composed of 11 judges who sit in panels of three in various regions of the state. The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals is elected by a majority of the Court's judges and serves a four-year term.

The Court of Appeals sits in various regional locations in order to provide convenient access to Virginia's citizens. These locations are normally in Alexandria, Norfolk, Richmond, and Salem. The clerk of the Court of Appeals is headquartered in Richmond and receives, processes, and maintains permanent records of appeals and other official documents filed with the Court.

The Court of Appeals hears appeals from circuit courts in all criminal matters except death penalty cases and in all domestic relations matters. In addition, appeals from decisions of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission and from most administrative agencies are taken to the Court. The Court also has original jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus, prohibition, and habeas corpus in any case over which the Court would have appellate jurisdiction. The Court has authority to hear appeals as a matter of right from:

- any final judgment, order, or decree of a circuit court involving affirmance or annulment of a marriage, divorce, custody, spousal or child support, or control or disposition of a child, as well as other domestic relations cases;
- any final decision of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission (a state agency responsible for handling workers' compensation claims);
- any final decision of a circuit court on appeal from a decision of an administrative agency (example: the Department of Health); and
- any interlocutory order granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction or adjudicating the principles of a cause in any of the cases listed above.

Virginia's Courts Jurisdiction and Structure

The Circuit Courts are Virginia's trial courts of general jurisdiction and have the authority to try a full range of civil and criminal cases. The circuit court system consists of 31 judicial circuits encompassing 120 separate circuit courts in the various counties and cities of the state. As of December 31, 2020, 168 judges and 121 locally elected clerks serve in the circuit courts. The judges of the Circuit Courts are elected and receive interim appointments in the same manner as the Court of Appeals judges. The Chief Judge of the circuit is elected for a two-year term by a vote of the judges serving in the circuit. See Table 23. In 2020, there were two courts, Alexandria (18th) and Fairfax (19th), that did not use the Courts Automated Information System - Case Management System (CAIS-CMS). These courts transmitted their own manually- or electronically-tabulated data. Statistical information has been italicized for these courts in the tables in this section.

In Virginia, the district court system, operational since 1973, is comprised of two distinct courts. A variety of criminal, traffic, and civil cases are heard by the general district courts. In criminal matters, the general district courts hear misdemeanor cases and hold preliminary hearings for felony cases. In civil cases, the general district court has exclusive jurisdiction in suits involving amounts of $4,500 or less and concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit courts in suits involving amounts up to $25,000.

In many instances, a citizen's first contact with Virginia's Judicial System comes through the office of the Magistrate. A principal function of the magistrate is to provide an independent, unbiased review of complaints of criminal conduct brought to the office by law enforcement or the general public. Magistrate duties include issuing various types of processes such as arrest warrants, summonses, bonds, search warrants, subpoenas, and certain civil warrants. Magistrates also conduct bail hearings in instances in which an individual is arrested on a warrant charging him or her with a criminal offense. Magistrates provide services on an around-the-clock basis, conducting hearings in person or through the use of video-conferencing systems.

The magistrate system for the Commonwealth is divided into eight regions, and each magistrate is authorized to exercise his or her powers throughout the magisterial region for which he or she is appointed. Each region is comprised of between three and five judicial districts. There are magistrate offices located throughout Virginia, including at least one in each of Virginia's 32 judicial districts.

Information About Virginia's Judges

The Justices of the Supreme Court of Virginia are elected by a majority vote of each House of the General Assembly for a term of twelve years. Interim appointments are made by the Governor subject to election by the General Assembly at the next regular session. By law, the Chief Justice is selected by a vote of the seven members of the Court.

The Court of Appeals Judges are elected by a majority vote of each House of the General Assembly. They serve for eight-year terms. Interim appointments are made by the Governor subject to election by the General Assembly at the next regular session. The Chief Judge is elected by a vote of the eleven judges for a term of four years.

The Judges of the Circuit Courts are elected and receive interim appointments in the same manner as the Court of Appeals Judges. The Chief Judge of the circuit is elected for a two-year term by a vote of the judges serving in the circuit.

The Judges of Virginia's District Courts are elected by a majority vote of each House of the General Assembly for terms of six years. Vacancies in district court judgeships occurring when the General Assembly is not in session are filled by the circuit court judges of the corresponding circuit. The judges so appointed must be elected by the next session of the General Assembly. Each district has a Chief General District Court Judge and a Chief Juvenile & Domestic Relations District Court Judge, both elected by peer vote for a two-year term. The Chief Judge is the administrative head of the respective courts in the district and is responsible for the management of the courts.

Magistrates provide an independent, unbiased review of criminal complaints brought to the office by police officers or the general public. Their duties include issuing various types of processes such as arrest warrants, summonses, emergency protective orders, search warrants, subpoenas, mental health orders, and emergency medical orders. Magistrates conduct bond hearings to determine bail in instances in which an individual is arrested and accept prepayments for traffic infractions and minor misdemeanors. Magistrates also serve as hearing officers for tax setoff hearings.
